

Kingstonian's new team

WYCOMBE Wanderers hope to have the services of veteran Tony Horseman for tonight's (Tuesday's) visit to Kingstonian in the Rothmans Isthmian League Division One.

'Bodger' has been out for a week after being injured at Enfield but he hopes to be fit for tonight. This can only be good news for the Blues, whose manager Ted Powell must make changes after seeing his side lose 1-0 to Hitchin at Loakes Park on Saturday.

Wanderers were distinctly poor against Hitchin and Powell will be sure to point out the lack of fight that was evident on Saturday to some of his players.

Paul Birdseye could also make a return after injury but John Maskell is likely to be out of action again.

At Kingstonian, Wanderers

will face almost a completely new team. Only four of last season's players are in the first team, including former Wanderer Trevor Waughman.

Among the newcomers this season are Dave Collyer, the former Woking goalkeeper, John and Tony Field from Hendon, Tony White from Slough and Adrian Eglite from Wealdstone. White, in fact, played a couple of games for Wycombe last season before moving to Slough. He scored two of the goals in the K's surprise 4-1 win at Walthamstow Avenue on Saturday — by far their best league result of the season. Previously they had lost to Slough, Leatherhead and Woking, drawn with Sutton and beaten Hendon.
